EAGLE PROTECTION OWNER'S POLICY

PAGE # 2

- The Eagle Policy insures against loss for damage to structures (including those built to modify or replace existing structures) caused by others using the surface of the land in the course of extracting minerals.
- Insured is protected up to $ 25,000 when forced to remove or correct existing structures that were built without a building permit or in violation of a permit.
- Protects the insured up to $ 5,000 if forced to remove a boundary wall or fence that encroached onto a neighbor's land, onto an easement or set back lines.
- Insured is protected up to $ 25,000 against loss due to violation of an existing zoning law or zoning regulation. The zoning coverage even extends to boundary walls and fences. The full amount of the policy will be paid for forced removal of a violation.
- It provides up to $ 10,000 of protection when subdivision laws have been violated prior to the homeowner's purchase and the homeowner is unable to obtain a building permit, is forced to correct or remove the violation or is unable to complete a sale or loan transaction.
- All of these specific dollar coverages are subject to a 1% Deductible charge.
- Coverage is expanded to provide coverage to the trustees under a trust created by the insured, as well as the beneficiaries of the trust.
- Coverage is extended to the insured who is unable to close a sale or loan because of a violation of the building and use restrictions and for loss from attempts by others to enforce restrictions and protects against loss of title because of violations of the restrictions. None of these matters are covered on an ALTA form.
- All of this Eagle Protection is available without any additional underwriting or searching for very little additional premium. $100,000 policy is $ 640.00 (Base Rate) for Eagle, while the standard ALTA policy is $ 570.00.
